Infantryman Jared Jupin identified himself as a police officer in violation of military infantry rules of engagement.

Infantryman Tim Brown identified himself as a police officer in violation of military infantry rules of engagement.

3-star brigadier general Tom Brenken identified himself as a police officer under oath at my jury trial in violation of U.C.M.J. and the Geneva conventions and also federal laws. He also identified himself as a military politician elected official 3-star army general in violation of military rules and state laws, while he was under oath.

Major General Sean McFarland identified himself as a politician in violation of N.A.T.O. and the Geneva conventions and also federal laws.

The Cedar Rapids military was in possession of police badges in violation of military infantry rules of engagement and also international laws.

Infantryman Brian Gardner has committed armed robbery and theft of 241 dollars cash out of my wallet in violation of military infantry rules and also state laws for armed robbery. He has also committed crimes against humanity at the Linn County Concentration Camp including starvation, torture, withholding medical treatment as a form of punishment, interrogation and the use of biological and chemical warfare weapons on prisoners of war. He has also identified himself as a politician with a black and blue foreign country political flag in violation of federal laws.

The Cedar Rapids military is not allowed to saturize, trample upon, cast contempt upon, or desecrate the flag of the United States of America with its "thin blue line" terrorist flag in violation of every law and every rule ever.

Major General Russell Kenst has identified himself as a politician who wrote a fake search warrant dated March 24, 2022 one day after his military served that warrant / attack order on March 23, 2022 during their war effort against me in my home.

Infantryman affiant officer Dominick Wise has identified himself as a police officer in violation of military infantry rules of engagement and federal law. He also did in fact unlawfully steal, take, and rob property in excess of 5000 dollars that he did not write a receipt for, and he stole the landlord's fire extinguisher in violation of fire codes. He also kidnapped me unlawfully and allowed my rent to go unpaid during my military service as a serious misdemeanor, and he owes the landlord the rent for my absence.

Infantryman John Lindaman and his subordinate infantrymen did rape, sexually assault, and sexually harass me in jail as a crime against humanity and violate state laws. He also denied me medical treatment for the rape as a form of punishment.

The Cedar Rapids military attached the black word "POLICE" to their camouflaged military uniforms in combat in violation of military rules of engagement and state laws. They also used a homemade military tank in violation of state laws.

Major general Nick Maybanks furnishes police gear to his war fighters in violation of military rules of engagement.